DECLARATION OF CAMERON KERRIGAN IN SUPPORT OF PETITION TO CORRECT INCORRECTLY ENTERED DATE-IN UNDER 37 CFR 1.10(d)

I, Cameron Kerrigan, declare as follows:

1. I am an associate with the law firm of Squire, Sanders & Dempsey, L.L.P. counsel of record for the above-referenced patent application. I state these facts of my own personal knowledge, or, where indicated, upon information and belief, and if called as a witness, I could and would testify competently thereto.

2. On November 1, 2001, I sealed the contents of the patent application material for the above-mentioned patent application in an Express Mail pouch. Express Mail Label No. EL852371030US was affixed to the patent application. A true and correct copy of the Express Mail Label No. EL852371030US as filed on November 1, 2001 is attached hereto as Exhibit A. True and correct copies of the Transmittal Letter as filed showing the Express Mail Label No. EL852371030US, and the first page of the application as filed showing the Express Mail Label No. EL852371030US, are attached hereto as Exhibits B and C, respectively.

3. On November 1, 2001, I forwarded the sealed application material to our mail department.

4. Upon information and belief, on November 1, 2001, the patent application material was deposited in the Express Mail drop box located in the Gateway Branch of the United States Postal Service office located at One Embarcadero, San Francisco, California.

5. Upon information and belief, the eighth entry on the mail log attached as Exhibit D refers to the above-mentioned patent application. A true and correct copy of the mail log for November 1, 2001 is attached as Exhibit D.

6. Upon information and belief, the notation in the first column of the eighth entry on Exhibit D indicates that the mail package was sent out on November 1, 2001.

7. The client code number in the eighth entry ("56232") refers to the Assignee of the above-mentioned patent application.

8. Upon information and belief, the initials "CK" adjacent to the client code number indicate that the package was sent on my behalf.

9. Upon information and belief, the notation in the third column of the eighth entry "New A." means "new account" and indicates that the package sent on November 1, 2001, was a new patent application.

10. Upon information and belief, the only document mailed for client code number 56232 on November 1, 2001, was the above-mentioned patent application.

11. I further declare that all statements made herein of my own knowledge are true and that all statements made upon information and belief are believed to be true; and further that these statements were made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under Section 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code, and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the application or any patent issuing thereon.

DECLARATION OF JASON JACOBSON IN SUPPORT OF PETITION TO CORRECT
INCORRECTLY ENTERED DATE-IN UNDER 37 CFR 1.10(d)

I, Jason Jacobson, declare as follows:

1. I am a mailroom staff-person with the law firm of Squire, Sanders & Dempsey, L.L.P. counsel of record for the above-referenced patent application. I was employed as a mailroom staff-person on November 1, 2001. I state these facts of my own personal knowledge, or, where indicated, upon information and belief, and if called as a witness, I could and would testify competently thereto.

2. On November 1, 2001, I received the sealed application material for the above-mentioned patent application from Cameron Kerrigan.

3. On November 1, 2001, I personally deposited the patent application material in the Express Mail drop box located in the Gateway Branch of the United States Postal Service office located at One Embarcadero, San Francisco, California.

4. On November 1, 2001, I personally deposited the patent application material at or about 4:45 p.m.

5. The eighth entry on the mail log attached as Exhibit D refers to the above-mentioned patent application. A true and correct copy of the mail log for November 1, 2001 is attached as Exhibit D.

6. As part of my everyday employment duties, it is my responsibility to log all outgoing "Express Mail" correspondence in a log such as the log attached as Exhibit D when the outgoing "Express Mail" correspondence relates to matters which have not been assigned a client-matter number.

7. I personally made the notation for the eighth entry on Exhibit D within one business day after the package was deposited with the United States Postal Service on November 1, 2001.

8. The date in the first column of the eighth entry in Exhibit D ("11/1") refers to November 1, 2001.

9. The number "56232" in the eighth entry in Exhibit D is a client code number.

10. Upon information and belief, the client code number in the eighth entry ("56232") refers to the Assignee of the above-mentioned patent application.

11. The initials "CK" adjacent to the client number in the eighth entry of Exhibit D refer to Cameron Kerrigan and indicate that the package was sent on the behalf of Cameron Kerrigan.

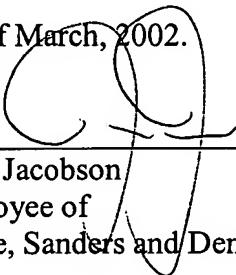

12. The notation in the third column of the eighth entry "New A." means "new account."

13. I further declare that all statements made herein of my own knowledge are true and that all statements made upon information and belief are believed to be true; and further that these statements were made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under Section 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code, and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the application or any patent issuing thereon.
